

Authorization Letter

This letter is to verify that any individual with active membership in the Microsoft Certified Trainer program is authorized to leverage the program's MCT badge images for digital and printed promotional purposes. All individuals who show active status of the Trainer qualification within their Microsoft Learn transcript are considered qualified participants and partners in Microsoft skilling and are authorized to produce promotional merchandise using the Microsoft Certified Trainer badges shown below.

- The MCT badge images contain the Microsoft logo and Microsoft Learn branding standards.
- We understand promotional items produced by MCTs may be manufactured in any country in the world.
- MCTs may elect to place the MCT badge image on any promotional product of their choice.

Any individual presenting this letter of authorization and sharing their Microsoft Learn transcript with current Trainer status is granted permission to print materials with the MCT badges.

Microsoft Certified Trainer Program
Microsoft Corporation
mctprog@microsoft.com

Standard MCT badge

Simplified MCT badge

